Cadre review proposals for Group 'A' Officers

4505. SHRI RAMACHANDRA KHUNTIA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the number of cadre review proposals for the organised Group 'A' services, presently pending for Government's approval;

(b) the levels at which these are pending and for what reasons; and

(c) when the last cadre reviews for each of the services mentioned above was held?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL AND TRAINING AND DEPARTMENT OF PENSIONS AND PENSIONERS WELFARE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI VASUNDHARA RAJE): (a) to (c) Cadre review of organized Group 'A' services is the exercise of making manpower projections and recruitment planning while streamlining the cadre structure in order to optimize the efficiency, moral and effectiveness of a cadre. The cadre review exercise is primarily the concern of the respective Cadre Controlling Authorities, who formulate the cadre review proposal, in terms of the guidelines and instructions laid down by Department of Personnel & Training and Ministry of Finance, and defend it during its examinations at various stages. The cadre review proposal is examined in the Department of Personnel & Training/ Ministry of Finance, and thereafter submitted to a Cadre Review Committee. The final decision of the Cadre Review Committee is placed before the Cabinet by the Cadre Controlling Authority to obtain its approval, before implementation. A cadre review proposal
